WORK EXPERIENCE

Tailors Assistant

OneBC | Nottingham | June 2018 - June 2020

Recently finished my placement with OneBC as a fashion design intern learning how to create silhouettes and handle certain materials.

Understanding their features and characteristics. most of all learning how to create designs through pattern cutting and toiling, learning how to measure customers and helping the lead tailoring in any way I can make sure the clients order is fully fashioned and completed.

Head Repairer

Nudie Jeans | London | October 2022 - Present

Nudie jeans has given me the understanding of denim construction, at this establishment I've been equipped with the skills to understand the construction of jeans and repair them. My job description is one of great significance as I repair all the customers jeans and garments regardless of condition we repair repair repair, to make every jean individual and unique to every customer. This job has allowed me to work under pressure and work towards a deadline so we achieve customer satisfaction to a high standard.

Fashion Design Assistant

Alexander McQueen | London | October 2021 - November 2022

This opportunity gave me the perspective and knowledge of how to work in a big team surrounded by individuals who bring amazing and unique elements to the company. We all worked on the Spring/summer 2023 collection where my talents were put to the test by constructing and finishing the knitwear element of the collection with the team from Knitster LTD who were contracted to work on this collection.

Creative Director

Otto Alexander Smith | London | 2023-Present

This is my own employment, being the head designer of my own Brand "SMOKIN SMITH STUDIOS" where my main focus is denim, constructing and creating denim products for sale such as Jeans. After finishing my MA in Fashion at the Royal college of art my love for denim really expanded, I made it my sole mission to create a denim studio where I could create and community of Otto denim wearers! Expressing my historical makeup in denim which my consumers can arm themselves with my memories and strength.
